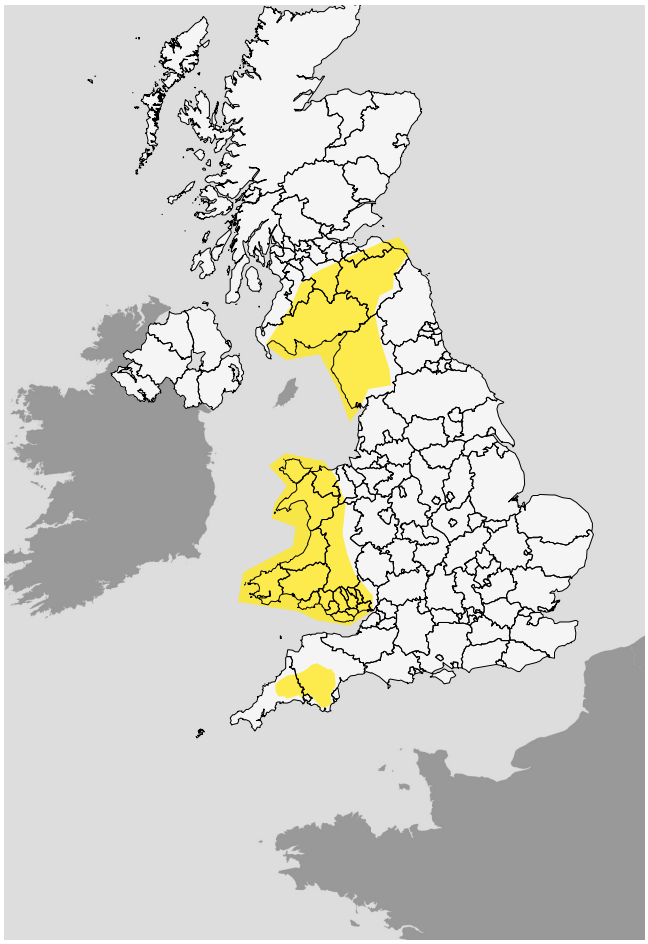
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Sat 13 Oct 2018 and
23:59 Sat 13 Oct 2018



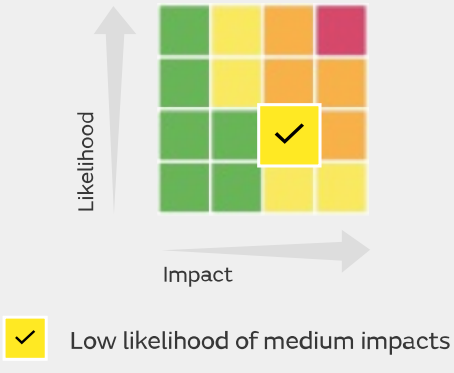
Further heavy and persistent rainfall is expected on Saturday, with further flooding possible.

What to expect

- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life

Further details

Following Storm Callum, heavy rain will continue to affect southwest England, parts of Wales and northwest England along with southern Scotland for much of Saturday. Areas of high ground exposed to the south and south west will be most affected, with the potential for a further 50-80 mm quite widely over hills. Further strong winds may bring down leaves and branches, increasing the likelihood of flooding due to blocked drains or culverts.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
